MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

Financial affairs are quiet. Business may be said to have slightly improved, but everything is comparatively very dull yet Money hereabouts is "stringent" on the street, but for commercial purposes we hear no complaint, the banks being able to accommedate liberally. In New York money is quoted very easy at 2a3 per cent for call loans, and 41a0 for prime mercantile paper. In Baltimore the supply of money offering is liberal, and the rates are nearly nominal; prime paper goes at 4a6 per cent, with the bulk of the business at 5. Gold rates fluctuat; but slightly, the closing quotations to-day heing 1051. Government bon is are generally unchanged, 65s being slightly higher. In State securities there is more firmness, Virginia consols selling at 641; deferred at 5, some $13,000 cf the latter going at that figure. In local railroad securities we note sales of O., A. & M. 7s at 61. B. & O. stock closed at 95a100 regular, and offered at 96 seller 60, but not in such large amounts; first preferred sold at 96. THE CANAL TROUBLES. - A special to the Baltimore Sun, of this moroning, from Hagers town, says :-of Washington county, accompanied by Detectives Albert Gault and Mak Hagan, of Baltimore: Constables John A. Baim, George F. Chrissinger, John P. Trexell and Warden Joseph Little, left Hancock and proceeded up blockade existed, opposite Sir John's Run station. All along the way they were jeered and York. threatened by boatmen, but went on, arriving at Maid's lock, where the boats are lying. The boatmen congregated around them and were addressed by the Sheriff, who informed them that the canal must be opened.

"After considerable parleying the Sheriff went across the river and had a consultation with Col. II. Kyd Douglas, who had arrived with three companies of U. S. Troops from Cumberland. The Sheriff returned with about fifty regulars, who waded the river and were drawn up along the townath. The Sheriff, the detectives and the constables then went among the crowd and arrested eight of the boatmen, whose names are as follows: - Nelson A. Long, John Kay Sill, Robert Reed, George E. Little, Beverly Brooks, Harry Davis, (who is known as Handsome Harry,) Simon Weston and Lafayette Eichelberger. As they were arrested they were handed over to the military. who guarded them until the number was com plete, and then took them across the river and put them on the train leaving at 11.15 a. m. The prisoners were then taken charge of by Detective Gault, Constables Baim and Chris singer, and Marden Little, and brought to Hagerstown, where they were committed by Jusnext.

"The charge in the warrants issued for the arrest of these men is that they were concerned in the burning of the canal steamer "Star No. night of July 22d.

The talk among them was that they would now take their boats home and tie up. Deputy Sheriff Leggett also brought here this afternoon Wm. II. Boyer, whom he arrested on the same charge at Mercersville. He was taken before Justice Oliver that Rev. Mr. Graham will be able to fill his and released on one thousand dollars bail for hearing on Saturday, Messrs. Abraham Koon and Isaac Milson becoming his bondsmen. Messrs. a reckless, bullying man. "The Seventh Maryland Regiment arrived about 2 o'clock, and wading the river, took up position along the tow-path, where they were when the Sheriff left the scene for Hagerstown. Colonel Howard had issued an order that all boats should leave there, and he will see that it is obeyed. It is thought that what was done today will break up the obstructions on the canal. day will break up the obstructions on the canal. as the authorities are pretty confident they have captured the ringleaders of the obstructionists.

'At a meeting of boatmen at Williamsport, Wednesday, a vote was taken upon the question of resuming work. The vote was unanimous for 85 and 90 cents per ton freightage and a reduction in the trippage.

"The feeling among the boatmen in regard to the strike on the canal has been carefully enquired into, and the information received by the State authorities is to the effect that many of them are tired of the idleness forced upon them by their comrades. One statement made by persons who acquainted themselves with the sta tus of affairs about Hancock and Sir John's run was that of the 260 boatmen congregated there at least one half would go to work if they dared A leading coal company several days since re-ceived a proposition from its boatmen that if the company was willing to run the risk of damage company was willing to run the risk of damage to the boats by the strikers the boatmen would force their way through the canal. They rereported themselves as tired of the inaction on the canal, and wanted to do something to break the blockade. Other coal companies have reports from their boatment to the same effect, that they would go to mark if protected in deligation. they would go to work if protected in doing so.

In view of all the facts parties interested in having the canal opened said yesterday that the State authorities could not have delayed longer or reopening the canal to trade. The following rates have been offered by the coal agents at Cumberland :-"The American company will not pay over 90 cents a ton to Georgetown. "The Consolidation company will give 85 cts. a ton to Georgetown, and a reduction of $10 on Dominguez died in exile at Kingston, Jamaica, June 24th last, aged seventy-seven. The remains of three generals who were shot under Dominguez's authority have recently been exhumed by the Covernment for the purpose of receiving honorable burial, attended by imposing ceremonies. The illness of President Canal causes no inconsiderable uneasiness and anxiety throughout the Republic in consequence both of its long continuance and fear that he would section of said alley, with Sharp Shin Alley, ultimately feel obliged to make a voyage to Euday. Birch is not a boatman nor employed on evening, being the first arrivals since the strike rope, but, owing to the advice of an American physician, under whose chief care he is at present, he is prevailed upon to be treated at home. This decision may be looked upon as fortunate for the Republic, liable as it is to undergo political disturbance at every such change. London, Auz. 10 .- The electoral campaign on the part of the French Government daily becomes more active and oppressive. Hawkers of newspapers at Complegue were recently required to furnish lists of the newspapers then served to oustomers. The officials then suppressed the delivery of the Siecle, Nineteenth Century, Presso, Republique Fran-cais, National Bien, Public Petil, Republique Francaise and Petil Journal, all republican journals. Two clubs at Arles have been closed, charged with being political assemblages. The Paris police have forbidden the street sale of photographs of M. Thiers. The offence of speaking insultingly of President MacMahone in the streets is now becoming the subject of daily action before the courts.

Lynching in Culpeper.

CULPEPER, VA., Aug. 10.-Soon after 11 o'clock last night crowds began to assemble in the dark corners of the streets near the ail the report being current that an effort would be made to lynch the negro Thompson, who outraged a young white girl, near Mitchell's Station, on Sunday night last. At one o'clock a. m. a posse of about fifty men entered the town, marched down Main street, and thence good security, and to bear interest from day of to the juil in a most orderly manner. No de- sale. The title to be retained till the purchase monstration was made, not a word being price is fully paid. spoken. Halting before the jail they aroused the jailor, who refused to give admittance to the crowd, but finding resistance useless yieldthe floor) secured the prisoner. They then hanged their victim to a large poplar tree. Thompson was granted the privilege of speak ing, but declined, he having previously confessed his guilt. The body remained hanging until ten o'clock this morning, when it was cut down and a coroner's inquest held. There was no excitement, nor was the lynching known to many residents of this place. The lynchers were not disguised, but owing to the darkness none could be recognized. It is thought they were from the vicinity of the outrage.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

BEF KIDNEY DIFFICULTIES. - Speer's Port Grape Wine is one of the best diuretics known, it gently acts on the kidneys infusing in them new vigor and urges them to throw from the system all the worn out particles which if suffered to remain would poison the blood and create disease. Every disease to a certain extent demands a diuretic, every part of the system must be in working order to maintain health, and the kidneys especially are the main avenue for the escape of the poisons of the system. Physicians have, after strict trial and due examination found Speer's Port Grape Wine to answer the purpose admirably, and we recommend it in esses where a diuretic is needed. This wine is raised in New Jersey, and sold by Druggists generally. It is becoming the principal wine for communion purposes, and in great demand for evening entertainments by the most fashionable families on 5th and Lexington Aveunes,
